In Ciao, Testino handpicks his favorite images of Italy, a country that has featured heavily in his life, from his friendships and breathtaking vistas to quintessentially Italian iconic fashion shoots and Italians' ever-evolving allure to their effervescent lifestyle. Featuring three sections, IN GIRO (on the road), ALLA MODA (in fashion), and AL MARE (by the sea), the result is a highly personal journey across the country through Testino's lens that pays homage to Italy, its culture and is a chronicle of 40 years of genre-defining photography

ALTA MODA

Published in 2013 by MATE – Museo Mario Testino, in tandem with the opening of Mario Testino's touring exhibition Alta Moda, this book showcases Testino's portraits of Peruvians local to the mountainous region of Cusco, wearing festive attire. The series is an on going project that investigates both Peruvian traditions and the history of photography. Peru's traditional costumes appear to be as personal, handmade, exquisitely embroidered, conceived and dyed (and as rich in imagination) as the creations of the finest haute couture ateliers. "The vibrancy of the clothes expresses the intensity of spirit of the people who wear them," Testino said. "I hope my images show how these traditions still exist in the present, at least for now." The book contains contributions by Hamish Bowles, Dr. Jennifer Allen, Soledad Mujica and Fedora Martinez.
